

Alexandrina Pereira

Special adviser UK

Website: www.artport-project.org

Alexandrina Pereira is an art advisor with focus on international contemporary and Latin American Art based in London and Paris. Before establishing her own art consultancy company APART CONSULTANTS, she worked for commercial art galleries, an auction house in London, as a Corporate Art Collection Manager and Advisor as well as for a private collector in Paris. She was also employed in several institutions – Centre Georges Pompidou, Paris, Louise T Blouin Art Info London – and she has coordinated a number of art projects as well as a publication for the Saatchi Gallery.

Further to her Postgraduate Diploma she has given lectures and written articles for museum catalogues and art galleries. Alexandrina is a specialist in researching, procuring and commissioning artwork from emerging and established artists for her clients.

She is currently Sales Associate at Lazarides Ltd London.