

Eleonora Isunza de Pech

Function: Project coordinator Mexico

Website: www.artport-project.org

Eleonora Isunza de Pech is co-director of Cinema Planeta, the International Environmental Film Festival in Mexico and recipient of the 2010 National Award for the Protection of the Environment. Since 1988, she has worked as a writer, producer, and presenter of radio and television programs, including "Space 102.9" and "Space Children." She organized the Flower Mexico Expo 2004 and 2007, and received the 2007 Award for Excellence in Tourism by the Governor of the State of Morelos.

Since 1999 she has participated in regional programs such as The Heart of Mexico, in fairs and Expos such as Tourism Tianguis in Acapulco, FITUR in Madrid, Incentive Works in Toronto and IT & ME in Chicago. She studied Administration, Social Recreation, and Tourism, in Mexico City, and French History and Civilization in Lyon, France.